It's not often that a Saturday night party at a country club has a dress code of denim, but the benefit at the Ipswich Country Club this Saturday is all about being comfortable and casual. The Jeans & Jewels party, which benefits the Jeanne Geiger Crisis Center, is a dance party and auction. You're asked to wear jeans and anything that sparkles. Silent and live auction items include paintings, museum passes, Patriots tickets, and a private dinner with "House of Sand and Fog" writer Andre Dubus III. 6 p.m. to midnight. $60. Ipswich Country Club, 148 Country Club Way, Ipswich. 978-465-0999.
